

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells, which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers, are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, as the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics. Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria. Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"Your preparation known as Castoria I have used for years in children's complaints and I have found nothing better." John J. Larva, M. D., Cleveland, Ohio.

"For several years I recommended your 'Castoria' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results." Edwin F. Farnes, M. D., New York City.

"Your Castoria is a meritorious household remedy. It is purely vegetable and acts as a mild cathartic. Above all, it does no harm, which is more than can be said of the great majority of children's remedies." Victor H. Conrath, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy." A. F. Farnes, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild, laxative effect and freedom from harm." Edward Farnes, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments." J. A. Farnes, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

TRADE OF HAWAII FOR SEVEN MONTHS

For the seven months ended July, the trade of Hawaii with the United States—including only domestic merchandise from the mainland and Hawaiian products to the mainland—increased $10,454,665.

Imports of domestic merchandise from the States amounted to $15,452,205, against $12,240,006 for the corresponding period ended in 1911, an increase of $3,212,199.

Shipments of Hawaiian products to the mainland for the seven months ended 1912 were $36,366,403, against $29,122,937 for the 1911 period, a gain of $7,243,466.

Imports of merchandise from foreign countries to Hawaii for the 1912 seven-month period were $3,406,403, being an increase of $695,714 over the 1911 period. Exports of domestic products to foreign countries for the 1912 period fell off $459,784, being $139,491 against $599,245.

Following are comparisons of shipments of some of the leading exports of domestic products to the mainland, as between the seven months ended July 1912 and 1911.

Sugar, 1912, pounds, 872,292,945; 1911, pounds, 703,926,334; increase, 168,366,611 pounds, or 39,183 tons. Value, 1912, $35,015,561; 1911, $27,826,591; increase, $7,188,970.

Wool, raw, 1912, $32,688; 1911, $17,274; increase, $15,414.

It is to be remembered that much of the exports of coffee and pineapple juice are to foreign countries, but the statistics of the department of commerce and labor, as published in its monthly summary, lump all the foreign trade of Hawaii in values without specifying articles.
